

Disclosure of interests.

- 1: The business of D.J. Screen & Sons is solely owned by :-
Gavin M Screen.
- 2: There is no business or material financial interest in any price comparison website
- 3:
- a: There has been no material charitable donation to any third party
 - b: There has been no charitable contribution or payment of gratuity to any third party
 - c: There has been no material form of payment to any third party that does not relate to cost incurred or a service provided by the third party on behalf of or to D.J. Screen & Sons.

Terms of Business Payments.

We will issue you with an invoice for payment in relation to any services provided or undertaken.

Full payment of all service provided or undertaken is due 4 days before the funeral/services date or the funeral/services will be cancelled.

Full payment of our professional fee is due no later than 4 days before the funeral date or the funeral will be cancelled, also due are the full payment of any additions i.e., horse drawn hearse, additional limousines, coffin upgrade, church fees or grave purchase, with the balance due at the point of request.

If the entire payment of our professional fees and all additions have not been received 4 days prior of the funeral date, we reserve the right to cancel the funeral date, if an addition is requested after that payment has been made, the full payment of the addition/additions is required to be paid at the time of that request.